

Available Training for Educators

The Texas Education Agency has created many tools to aid local education agencies for the implementation of the ELPS throughout the grade levels and content areas.

Educators who work with ELLs can access additional professional development and instructional resources through the Texas Gateway, or their respective local education service center.