

Ideas to consider . . .

---

Beginning of the school year: Use the prior spring's TELPAS proficiency level ratings as a starting place to guide and determine appropriate linguistically accommodated instruction.

During the school year: Use ELPS student expectations and PLDs to monitor progress and adjust linguistic accommodations accordingly.