

Art: Middle School
Reflection Activity

Think back to a time in your life as an artist when you felt the most creative. Try to describe the people, events, and environment that made that time so creative.