

Music: Introduction Reflection Activity

As a music educator, reflect on times you witnessed music becoming a refuge for yourself or your students.

Write about the importance of collaboration in music education.

How have you witnessed music being a source of inspiration?

Reflect on the joy of music as a music maker as well as an audience member.

